Auditions will be closed, i.e. a private session with the auditioning actor. Actors should prepare a short 2-3 minute monologue of their choosing, or select one of the suggested monologues at www.lalt.org. Memorization is not necessary, but the actor must be sufficiently familiar with the monologue to present a dramatic interpretation. Actors who are out of town on the audition dates may contact Paul Lewis or John Gustafson to make special arrangements.

Copies of the script are available for two day checkout at the Mesa Public Library (reference desk). If you have difficulty obtaining a script, contact Paul Lewis or John Gustafson.
