

An abridged (60 minute) version of The Other Place is LALT's entry into AACTFest 2017. AACTFest is a national theatre festival competition sponsored by the American Association of Community Theatre. It is held every two years. Competition begins at the State level, advances to Regionals, and culminates in a National Festival.

This cycle the New Mexico State competition, sponsored by Theatre New Mexico, will be held March 2-6 in Las Cruces. Region VI competition will be held in Lafayette, Louisiana April 5-9. Region VI includes New Mexico, Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana. The National Festival will be held June 26 to July 1 in Rochester, Minnesota.

LALT has participated in AACTFest for decades and has hosted the New Mexico festival on several occasions, most recently in 2013. Recent LALT productions that have advanced from State competition include:

The Pillowman 2015

Van Choc Straw 2013

Moonlight and Magnolias 2011

The Other Place

By Sharr White

SYNOPSIS

Juliana Smithton is a successful neurologist whose life seems to be coming unhinged. Her husband has filed for divorce and her daughter has eloped with a much older man. And just as her research leads to a potential breakthrough, events take a disorienting turn. During a lecture to colleagues at an exclusive beach resort, she glimpses an enigmatic young woman in a yellow bikini amidst the crowd of business suits. But in this brilliantly crafted work, nothing is as it seems.

One step at a time, a mystery unravels as contradictory evidence, blurred truth and fragmented memories collide in a cottage on the windswept shores of Cape Cod.
